President Nemo opened the meeting and invited visiting Rotarian Bruce Deadman to say a few words. Bruce is a lawyer and is passing through Montreal on his way to Quebec City and a meeting of Ducks Unlimited, of which he is advisory senior vice-president. An exchange of banners then took place.

fondness of her experience as a Rotary Exchange Student 20 years ago. District 148(0) sent her to Queensland, Australia, to a place about 9 hours North of Brisbane with a name that means White Cockatoo. Returning to Copenhagen to complete her degree, she became a member of Rotaract at the university. She and her husband have a 1 year old boy, having moved to Montreal where she found work in the maritime insurance industry. She expressed satisfaction to be part of a global network of like-minded individuals and feels strongly about the importance getting involved in this type of service to society. The remainder of the meeting focused on the two new members of our club, Tracy Fairchild and May Jensen. Each was introduced by her sponsor and then given the opportunity to share a vision of what she saw herself and our club doing in the community. At the conclusion of the remarks, President Nemo presented membership certificates and pins.

Club Business:

- 1 - Motion was made by Carlo Pugliese, seconded by Bertrand de Cardaillac and carried to make a grant of $3000 to the Alouette Air Cadet Squadron in the current Rotary year.
- 2 - After discussion, it was agreed to transfer our club's vote at the annual meeting of Rotary International in New Orleans to a member of the Laval Club, namely to Manon Lennon, who will be attending along with several other members of her club.

Tracy Fairchild was introduced by Mike Zivic. He described her as a consummate professional in communications. He listed six distinct areas in her company where she was "in charge". The detail she manages obviously requires remarkable skill and discipline. In her all too brief
